ADDITIONAL REMARKS

(Use this sheet for inserting any additional information that is of historical value)

Corporal Lee Sanders, was killed in an accident to his own motor truck, near Allentown Penna., May 14th 1919. He was taking a number of drivers to the station, to return with a consignment of motor trucks. In exchanging the steering wheel, while moving, with another driver the latter failed to keep straight course at the moment of exchange. The car swerved and Corporal Sanders was thrown out. Death was practically instantaneous, ensuing before his comrades could carry him into a hospital. Age, 22 years and 11 days.

(This is all that can be extracted from the information sent by mail to the Committee. Unlettered boys cannot be impressed at distance with the importance of details. The record mentions his bronze victory button, issued Capt. Owen G. Sweet; and his Discharge at Camp Sherman, Ohio, is apparently signed by P. W. McConnell, 2nd Lieut., Infantry, Commanding Troop #11.
